DOCTRINAL STATEMENT OF EASTSIDE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Eastside Christian School is thoroughly committed to evangelical Christian doctrine and standards of conduct. Accepting the fundamentals of the Christian faith, it stands unequivocally for the (1) the inspiration of the Old and New Testaments, (2) the deity of Christ, (3) the need and sufficiency of the atonement, (4) the new birth through a repentant heart by the Holy Spirit, (5) the need and glorious possibility of the born-again Christian being so cleansed from sin and filled with the love of God by the Holy Spirit that one can and should live a life of victory over sin, and (6) the personal return of the Lord Jesus Christ. Eastside Christian School is committed to the Christian philosophy which acknowledges in God an eternal and unchanging authority external to man and to society. It is a way of life which maintains that fellowship with God through Jesus Christ is the strongest impetus toward one's self-fulfillment. Socially, Eastside Christian School represents a community in which individual behavior is guided by the standards of personal health, moral integrity, social consequences and the effectiveness of the Christian witness. All employees are expected to model Christian behavior as representatives of the school.
